The El Paso Black Hall of Fame is an initiative of The Black Roundtable and Black El Paso Voice – founded by Monica Tucker and retired Army Warrant Officer Howard Covington – created to honor individuals whose leadership, service, and achievements have made a lasting impact across the El Paso community and beyond. The Hall of Fame recognizes excellence, preserves community legacy, and inspires future generations through celebration, storytelling, and mentorship. Through the El Paso BHOF, the focus is to spotlight excellence, inspire service, and cultivate the next generation of leaders through collaborative efforts with other visionaries. The initiative will establish scholarships, programs, services, and initiatives for youth, young adults, military veterans, military spouses and families, and entrepreneurs across the region – creating pathways to mentorship, education, and civic engagement.

Who We Honor: Inductees include past and present residents of El Paso County who are making a difference locally or who have gone on to achieve and create impact wherever they are. The Hall of Fame exists to remember and elevate those who stood out – in our area and far beyond – so their stories continue to guide and galvanize our community.

Our Commitment to Inclusion: While celebrating Black excellence, we honor our place within a brilliant, multicultural society – welcoming and embracing diverse cultures, traditions, and perspectives. Through inclusive programming and partnerships, we strive to build bridges, deepen understanding, and uplift the shared future of all communities across El Paso.

Dear Community Partners,

The Black Roundtable and Black El Paso Voice (founders of Juneteenth El Paso) invite you to support our 2026 Black Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony, celebrating trailblazers who have shaped El Paso's cultural, civic, and professional landscape.

We offer a range of sponsorship, advertising, and table opportunities designed to fit different goals and budgets—each with meaningful recognition and engagement before, during, and after the event.

Why partner with us: Proceeds benefit The Black Roundtable and Project 2030, advancing cultural arts, education, and small-business development for lasting community impact.

Reserve Your Spot Today

The deadline for sponsorship commitments is December 8, 2025. If you're interested, please confirm your sponsorship or reach out with any questions. We'd be glad to recommend a level that aligns with your objectives. General advertising deadline is January 26, 2026.

The evening promises to be a powerful celebration of excellence, diversity, and progress. I hope you'll consider joining us in honoring these remarkable individuals.

SPONSORSHIP, ADVERTISING, AND TABLE OPPORTUNITIES

We offer several options that allow your organization to play a meaningful role in this landmark event. Please see the package for levels, benefits, and recognition.

Why Your Support Matters

Proceeds benefit The Black Roundtable (TBR) and Project 2030, our visionary community center initiative featuring cultural arts spaces, educational programs, a business incubator, and more - creating lasting impact for generations. We will also honor, in remembrance, two early champions of TBR, Dr. Maceo Dailey and Ms. Twymeni Purchase, who were instrumental in our launch and planning.

By sponsoring or attending, your company will align with a legacy of excellence and community empowerment while gaining visibility among influential leaders and stakeholders.
